Southmoreland School District
French IV Curriculum Overview

French IV Overview:

In French IV, students will be able to talk about events that used to happen in the past, events that will happen in the future, and events that would happen if something else happened using the four modes of communication.

Module Titles:

Module 1: Reminisce about specific and/or continuous past actions including their favorite childhood pastimes and possessions
Module 2: Speak about events in the future
Module 3: Express necessity
Module 4: Tell what would happen if something else happened

Module Overviews:

Module 1: Reminisce about specific and/or continuous past actions including their favorite childhood pastimes and possessions
Utilizing the four modes of communication (speaking, listening, reading, writing,) students will engage in the topics of Past tense formation (passé compose and imparfait), Family term vocabulary, Adjective agreement, Physical and character traits, Sequential order of events, Childhood activity and toy vocabulary, Expressing superlatives with adjectives, Comparative with adjectives and nouns, Adverbs of frequency, Information and yes/no questions

Module 2: Speak about events in the future
Utilizing the four modes of communication (speaking, listening, reading, writing,) students will engage in the topics of the outdoors, telling what they will do, wondering what will happen

Module 3: Express necessity
Utilizing the four modes of communication (speaking, listening, reading, writing,) students will engage in the topics of the body, ailments, utilization of the subjunctive mood

Module 4:Tell what would happen if something else happened.

Utilizing the four modes of communication (speaking, listening, reading, writing,) students will engage in the topics of complaining about health, giving advice, sympathizing with someone, engaging in the conditional tense, using si clauses